

Publication planning and ethics seminar – the changing landscape in Japan

Save the date! 27th February 2015 - Hotel Chinsanzo, Tokyo

Hear directly from leading international industry experts about the latest information in this fast moving and increasingly complex area

FREE to attend!

REGISTER NOW Places are limited!

To view the full agenda, find out more details, and register, please visit the below website.

www.springerhealthcare.com/publishing-japan-2015

Springer Healthcare and Japan Medical and Scientific Communicators Association (JMCA) are pleased to announce their first joint seminar covering vital topics on publication planning and ethics.

The free event is open to all publication planning and writing professionals and we invite you to register for the valuable event by visiting the below website.

Topics covered will include the latest global publication guidelines, the current situation with publication planning in Japan and case studies from Japanese pharmaceutical companies and authors of medical papers.

